Some time ago you sent me a rubbing of a Medal pertaining to Luther (on the Bispham Sale) which I secured at the sale.
You stated then that you had some more in stock! If so will you please inform me what they are, and what price you ask.

Or if you wish, you might send them to me registered 3d class by mail, for inspection and approval! They to refer to Messrs. G. W. Cogan & Co & Mr E. Woodward. Hoping to hear from you Respectfully: Chas. A. Snider.

Package received and contents noted. I found your prices very high. No 1. 1530-1630 I bought at auction (Henz sale) for 225, and it certainly is as good if not better than yours: of No 2 I have a companion piece in size for which I paid 135. As the pair is better be separated I can not purchase them. No 3. 1661. Bible I would like to get, but the price exceeds ³⁰⁰ me. If I should have had to pay for what I have at that rate my collection of Luther & Reformation medals would cost me a thousand dollars.

Please direct how you wish the package returned. Thanking you for your kindness Respectfully Chas. A. Gruber

I have concluded not to take either of the Medals No 1 or 2. If I take one, it will certainly spoil the sale of the other. I heartily concur in your judgment that the pair should remain together.

But there is a party here who has taken a fancy to No 1, 2, & 3. and asks me to offer you $15.⁰⁰ for the trio.
Do ~~you~~ what you think is right. It is of no consequence to me. I would just as lief send you the medals back as the money. Respectfully Menden & April. 1880. Chas. A. Tracer.

Can you furnish an 1864 gold dollar in good condition? and what is the price?

What is 1836 U.S. silver dollar worth? A lady wants both and requested me to find them for her.
